I'd Like to be a Tea Bag

I'd like to be a tea bag,
And stay at home all day
And talk to other tea bags
In a tea-bag sort of way.

I'd love to be a tea bag,
And lie in a little box
And never have to wash my face
Or change my dirty socks.

I wouldn't have to do exams,
I needn't tidy rooms,
Or sweep the floor, or feed the cats
Or wash up all the spoons.

I wouldn't have to do a thing—
A happy life, you see
Except that once in all my life
I'd make a cup of tea.
